These map resources were prepared to aid in navigating the Maumee River by boat. The aerial photos, taken from Google Earth have been sized to approximate the same scale as the USGS topographic maps and are meant to be used together. Care should be taken to research and review landmarks and river conditions before embarking on any journey. Make sure you have the proper personal flotation devices and that others know where you will be and are expected to end up.

Materials prepared by:

Matt Horvat
Maumee River Coordinator
Toledo Metropolitan Area Council of Governments
Horvat@tmacog.org